Your Home Away From Home

Student Housing

The college experience is unique and, let’s be honest, fun. It’s a chance to participate in activities and to make friends. Nowhere is this more evident at Purdue Fort Wayne than Student Housing, where our on-campus apartments—with seven unique floor plans to choose from—provide privacy, comfort, and convenience.

You'll enjoy a fully furnished kitchen and living area, laundry facilities, cable TV, internet, Wi-Fi, and free resident parking. When it’s time to have fun, take advantage of the big-screen TVs and pool, Ping-Pong, and foosball tables.

Student Housing also gives you the opportunity to interact with other students through a variety of activities and, if you choose, to be a part of one of our Living Learning Communities, which house students in biology, business, music, and engineering, technology, and computer science. Living with students who share your studies will provide an abundance of advantages—including the chance to boost your GPA. Learn more at pfw.edu/housing.

Dining

Once you are on campus, you’ll be busy. That’s why we make dining as convenient (and delicious) as possible.

Stress Less Dining offers you everything you’ll need to get a nutritious meal quickly—and then move on with your day. Enjoy meal plans with a variety of discount options, and if you use Don Dollars, you can save 5 percent by using your Mastodon Card.

PREPARE FOR SUCCESS

Your success is important to us. That’s why our faculty and staff are committed to giving you every opportunity to make the most of your time at Purdue Fort Wayne.

DISABILITY SERVICES
If you have a disability, you’ll be able to seek help with accommodations through our Office of Services for Students with Disabilities. The staff will match you with need-specific support services, including modified testing environments, sign language interpreters, and assistance obtaining books in audio format. Get more information at pfw.edu/ssd.

HELMKE LIBRARY SERVICES
You’ll find all the resources you need for academic success at Helmke Library, including study space, technology loans, and research assistance. You can also use Helmke Library for private or group study time—and our helpful librarians are always around to share their expertise. See everything Helmke Library offers at library.pfw.edu.

LEARNING SUPPORT
You’ll be able to improve your academic performance with our Math Testing Center and Tutoring Center. Tutoring is free, and you’ll be able to receive up to two hours per week. Our tutors (all students) will help with coursework and also recommend campus resources. Get guidance in creating great papers, essays, speeches, and presentations at the Writing Center, where our experts offer assistance with all aspects of writing. Learn how to improve your academic performance at pfw.edu/learning-support.

LGBTQ+ RESOURCE CENTER
Educational. Supportive. Accepting. Inclusive. That’s the kind of environment you’ll find at the LGBTQ+ Resource Center. The center provides support services and educational efforts that reduce heterosexism, genderism, homophobia, and transphobia. Get more information on our center at pfw.edu/resource-center.

OFFICE OF DIVERSITY AND MULTICULTURAL AFFAIRS
Discover support, friendship, and more at the Office of Diversity and Multicultural Affairs. It’s a space where minority, first-generation, and nontraditional students can receive academic, social, and personal support. Learn more at pfw.edu/odma.

STUDENT SUCCESS AND TRANSITIONS
At Student Success and Transitions, our team will assist you with the different challenges you may face, whether you are having a problem academically, want to talk about withdrawing from a course, or need help smoothing out the transitions each year of college brings. Learn more at pfw.edu/sst.
Our campus is buzzing with activity. Get the lay of the land and take a peek at what goes on in some of our buildings.

Walb Student Union
The central hub of campus activity, Walb Student Union is where you can get a meal at Don’s at Walb and check out what the Mastodon Campus Store offers. It’s also where you’ll find the Campus Health Clinic, Student Government, student organization offices, Student Life and Leadership, and the campus food pantry.

Arts Campus
The north end of campus features the Visual Arts Building, filled with studios and labs; Williams Theatre, where students bring plays and musicals to life; and the John and Ruth Rhinehart Music Center, home to the School of Music, labs, classrooms, a recital hall, and a 1,500-seat performance auditorium.

Science Building
The Science Building has what you need to broaden your horizons and explore what's possible. It features a mix of modern classrooms, labs, and open spaces for studying and working on group projects.

Kettler Hall
Kettler Hall—our campus’s very first building—is a great information resource, whether you need tutoring assistance or to learn about financial aid. It’s also where you can connect with your advisor.

Engineering, Technology, and Computer Science Building
Cutting edge and state of the art come to life in the Engineering, Technology, and Computer Science Building. Self-guided mobile robots, smart cameras, virtual reality—you’ll find all this and more here.

Neff Hall
Find programs in communication, organizational leadership, elementary and secondary education, special education, mental health counseling, psychology, and public administration in Neff Hall.

Liberal Arts Building
Explore English, world languages, philosophy, women’s studies, political science, and so much more in the Liberal Arts Building.

Helmke Library
Whether you’re studying alone or in a group, you’ll find what you need at Helmke Library. Take advantage of quiet areas as well as open work tables, mobile whiteboards, and dual-screen display stations that are perfect for group projects. Helmke is also home to our Honors Program and the Writing Center.
A variety of financial aid opportunities await you at Purdue Fort Wayne. Three out of four of our full-time students receive a total of more than $75 million annually in the form of loans, scholarships, grants, and work-study. Contact our Office of Financial Aid at 260-481-6820 or finaid@pfw.edu.

Your financial aid begins with the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), which is free to file. The FAFSA is the only way to secure federal and state loans, and it is required for many general and department-specific Purdue Fort Wayne scholarships. Keep in mind that you must complete the FAFSA every year to be eligible for aid. Our school code is 001828; this number allows us to receive your information.

EDUCATION BEYOND YOUR STATE LINE

If you are a resident of Illinois, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, or Wisconsin, you are eligible for our Midwest Student Exchange Program tuition rate. While many universities charge double the tuition rate for out-of-state students, because we are part of the Midwest Student Exchange Program, our rate is only one-and-a-half times our in-state tuition.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Many kinds of scholarships—university, external, and military—are available to you at Purdue Fort Wayne. Not all of them are based entirely on academic achievement. Many take into account financial need. Learn more about our scholarships and find out what your needs are at pfw.edu/scholarships.

Get a cost-of-attendance estimate by using our Net Price Calculator. Your estimate will reflect the cost of tuition, required fees, books, supplies, room, board (meals), and other related expenses minus your financial aid. Go to pfw.edu/financial-aid/calculator to get started.

2019–20
TUITION

$8,589 RESIDENT

$12,882 MIDWEST STUDENT EXCHANGE PROGRAM

$20,622 NONRESIDENT

These tuition rates apply to full-time undergraduates enrolled in 12–18 credit hours per semester. For more information, go to pfw.edu/tuition.

The average scholarship for 2019–20 students is $1,900. To see your potential award, and what you could save on tuition, go to pfw.edu/scholarships and click on First-time freshmen to access our Scholarship Calculator Estimator.
ATTENDING PURDUE FORT WAYNE IS EASY

1. Submit your application at pfw.edu/apply and pay the application fee (if applicable).

2. Submit all official transcripts of academic history, including high school, GED, or high school equivalency; college, university, or technical trade school; standardized test scores (SAT or ACT); and a list of current coursework (if applicable).

3. Once you have submitted your application and any other required documentation, you can check your admission status online.
