

MANAGEMENT AND ACADEMIC MISSION AGREEMENT
INDIANA UNIVERSITY-PURDUE UNIVERSITY FORT WAYNE

THIS AGREEMENT dated as of July 1, 2008, is made between THE TRUSTEES OF INDIANA UNIVERSITY (Indiana) and THE TRUSTEES OF PURDUE UNIVERSITY (Purdue) to provide for the management, operation and academic mission of Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne. This Agreement supersedes the Management and Academic Mission Agreement which became effective July 1, 2003.

1. Effective Date. On and after July 1, 2008, (effective date) the campus of Indiana University and Purdue University in Allen County, Indiana and its regional sites (IPFW) shall be managed as provided in this Agreement. This Agreement becomes effective immediately upon approval of the Trustees of Purdue University and Indiana University, and ends on June 30, 2013, unless terminated mutually by Indiana and Purdue before that date.
2. Responsible Corporation. Purdue is hereby designated as the responsible corporation with full power, authority and responsibility to manage and operate IPFW for the benefit of Indiana University and Purdue University and do all things necessary and proper for that purpose. In the management and operation of IPFW, Purdue shall act in its own name and shall not act or be deemed to act as the agent of Indiana University; Purdue hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold harmless Indiana University against any cost, expense, loss, damage or liability whatsoever on account of any undertaking, act or omission on the part of Purdue with respect to the management and operation of IPFW under this Agreement (excepting therefrom those acts or omissions on the part of Indiana University pertaining to its responsibilities under this Agreement).
3. Assignment of Academic Missions. Indiana University and Purdue University shall be assigned specific academic, research and public service missions in the operation of IPFW as mutually agreed upon from time to time and approved by the respective Boards of Trustees. The current assignment of missions is as follows:

A. Indiana University has been assigned the following academic mission areas:

C. Mission Responsibility and Authority. The institution which holds the mission in a particular profession or disciplinary field (1) shall approve the appointment of all faculty members, part-time and full-time, who offer instruction in that field at IPFW, (2) shall have full control of all curricula in the field, including extensions thereof, (3) shall award all credit and degrees (associate, baccalaureate, professional and/or graduate) in the field, and (4) shall supply all services or support courses in that field required by students pursuing degrees in a different field with the other institution, and (5) shall approve the appointment of the dean or director of a school, unit, or division, but in the case of a school, unit, or division containing missions of both Universities, such an administrative appointment will be approved by the Presidents of both Universities. With the exception of certain professional degrees (e.g. Nursing and Business), Master's and doctoral education programs are system-wide responsibilities of Indiana University and Purdue University. Existing assignments of responsibility for secondary mission areas, including the Library, will continue unchanged.

4. Administration. The Chancellor is the Chief Executive Officer of the Fort Wayne Campus. He/She will be appointed and employed by Purdue University with approval of Indiana University and will report to the Purdue President. All other administrative officers will also be appointed and employed by Purdue University.
5. Faculty. Purdue will appoint and employ all new full-time and part-time faculty members, including those who function in Indiana University mission areas. All faculty members who function in mission areas assigned to Indiana University shall first be approved by Indiana, and Purdue agrees to employ only persons so approved. All faculty functioning in Indiana University mission areas shall hold regular faculty appointments (not adjunct appointments) at Indiana University, and shall hold or earn campus-specific tenure at Indiana University. Academic rank designations and changes therein from time to time, for personnel functioning in Indiana mission areas, shall be specified by Indiana; and for such persons, initial salary levels, and subsequent adjustments will be established by Purdue University in consultation with Indiana University. All members of the faculty, regardless of their initial appointment, will continue to earn or have campus-specific tenure. All new appointees will be on the Purdue pay and benefits plan; continuing Indiana University faculty will have the option to select the Purdue program if they so desire.
6. Students.
 - A. Admission. All students shall be admitted as either Indiana or Purdue students in accordance with the degree program elected by the student and using the standards of Indiana and Purdue. Academic records will be maintained and documentation furnished as required by each institution for the granting of degrees.

- B. Fees. Purdue shall establish, charge, and collect all tuition, fees and other charges from students and others using the facilities of IPFW.
 - C. Student Organizations and Discipline. Purdue shall be responsible for all policies related to student matters. IPFW student rights, responsibilities and standards of conduct will be established by campus administrators in consultation with the student and faculty government organizations and with the IPFW Community Advisory Council and shall be consistent with the principles established by Purdue and Indiana Universities.
 - D. Student Financial Assistance. Purdue shall manage all student financial assistance policies, including those related to awarding scholarships, grants and loans to students. Funds may be made available for financial aid purposes by both Indiana and Purdue. Purdue shall be responsible for the collection of long-term student loans.
 - E. Administrative Clerical and Service Personnel. All administrative, clerical and service personnel of IPFW shall be employed by Purdue which shall be solely responsible for such personnel.
 - F. Vacation and Other Benefits to Indiana Personnel. All Indiana personnel, including faculty, who are subsequently employed by Purdue shall be given credit for past service to Indiana whenever such service is a factor in determining salaries, wages and fringe benefits, and all such personnel shall be entitled to all vacation and sick leave earned.
9. Business Operation. From and after the effective date, Purdue will continue to be responsible for all business operations of IPFW. On the effective date, Purdue will continue all responsibility and liability for accounting, purchasing, contracts, fiscal management and control, telephone operations, parking facilities, safety and security, custodial services, building maintenance, building operations and insurance and utility charges for services rendered after the effective date.

10. IPFW Faculty Senate. The IPFW Faculty Senate will be delegated the usual responsibilities of faculty governance, including review and recommendation of policies and procedures regarding the curriculum, the academic calendar and other appropriate faculty and student matters.
11. IPFW Community Advisory Council. The IPFW Community Advisory Council will continue to consist of nine members, serving three-year staggered terms. The Presidents of Indiana and Purdue and the Chancellor will each appoint three members of the Council. One member appointed by each President shall be a Trustee of Indiana or Purdue. One member appointed by the Chancellor shall be an alumnus of IPFW. The operative needs of the Council shall be provided by the Chancellor's office, including but not limited to, clerical, meeting facility and minor budgeting items. The Council will annually elect its own officers. The Council will meet periodically to perform its responsibilities under this Agreement and, in consultation with the Chancellor, to address questions relevant to IPFW's operation, future development and budget requests.
12. Sponsored Programs. Purdue will administer sponsored programs under the existing policies and procedures. Indirect costs recovered from grants and contracts awarded to the Fort Wayne Campus shall be a part of the operating funds for the Fort Wayne Campus.
13. Patents and Copyrights. All patents and copyrights resulting from discoveries, inventions and material conceived or prepared prior to July 1, 1993, by Indiana or its personnel shall remain the property of Indiana. All subsequent patents and copyrights related to the activities of IPFW personnel shall be the property of Purdue.

14. University Coordination. The Presidents will continue to consult regularly regarding recommendations made by the Chancellor on all major matters such as, budgets, key personnel appointments, benefit policies, legislative issues, including appropriation requests, major capital improvements and community concerns. The Trustees of Indiana and Purdue, recognizing the need for IPFW to develop unique policies and practices in support of its own mission, ask the Presidents to encourage within the University systems opportunities for flexibility and autonomy and ask the Chancellor to consult regularly with the IPFW Community Advisory Council about such policies and practices.
15. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be legally binding upon Indiana and Purdue when authorized and approved by the respective Boards of Trustees and executed by duly authorized officers.
