

Financial Economics Certificate

Waivers/Previous Credits

You may be eligible for waivers of course requirements based upon academic courses taken. Waivers for economics courses and finance courses require written authorization from the Department of Economics and Finance.

For more information:
<https://pfw.edu/economics/>

PURPOSE

The purpose of the certificate is to prepare students for positions in the financial services industry and provide a working knowledge of the fundamentals of economics and finance.

REQUIRED COURSE (3 CREDIT HOURS EACH)

- ECON 20101 Introduction to Microeconomics
- ECON 20201 Introduction to Macroeconomics
- BUS 20100 Principles of Financial Accounting
- BUS 20300 Commercial Law I
- BUS 32800 Introduction to Taxation
- ECON 32100 Intermediate Microeconomic Theory
- One course from the list below:
 - ECON 35000 Money and Banking
 - BUS 34500 Money, Banking, and Capital Markets
 - ECON 32201 Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory
- Two courses from the list below:
 - BUS 30100 Financial Management
 - ECON 30600 Federal Reserve Challenge
 - BUS 30300 Intermediate Investments
 - ECON 36001 Survey of Public Finance
 - ECON 30600 Behavioral Economics and Finance
 - ECON 47101 Econometric Theory and Practice
 - MA 27300 Financial Mathematics
 - ECON 30600 Economics of Risk and Uncertainty

Total 27 credit hours (15 must be taken in the Doermer School of Business)