Assistant Professor or Clinical Assistant Professor of Health Services Administration

The faculty members in the Department of Public Policy in the College of Professional Studies at Purdue University Fort Wayne (PFW) seek applications for one full-time position at the rank of a tenure-track Assistant Professor or a non-tenure track Clinical Assistant Professor in Health Services Administration, depending on experience and qualifications, beginning August 2019. For the Assistant Professor position, the ideal candidate will possess a Ph.D. in Health Administration/Services Research/Management/Policy, Public Administration, Political Science, Sociology, Business or a related discipline. Advanced ABD applicants will also be considered, but the candidate must complete the degree by July 1, 2019. For the Clinical Assistant Professor position, the ideal candidate will possess a terminal degree in an appropriate field and substantial experience in the health care delivery industry at a senior appointment level for at least five years. The successful applicant will be expected to teach courses in health administration and health policy at both the undergraduate and graduate levels, as well as to engage in service as determined by the department and university guidelines. The tenure-track Assistant Professor is expected to have an active research agenda.

The faculty in the interdisciplinary Department of Public Policy have backgrounds in Criminology, Law, Political Science, Public Administration, Public Health, and Sociology. The department has approximately 250 undergraduate and graduate students. A description of the department’s programs and courses can be found at http://www.pfw.edu/public-policy/.

Purdue University Fort Wayne (PFW) is the largest university in northeast Indiana, offering 25 graduate and over 100 prestigious Purdue University undergraduate degrees and certificates. More than 10,000 students of diverse ages, races, and nationalities belong to the Purdue University Fort Wayne family. We seek to develop and nurture that diversity by maintaining an inclusive community that recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fostering tolerance, sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect. The 688-acre campus in Fort Wayne is home to over 8,000 degree-seeking undergraduate and graduate students. Through Purdue University Fort Wayne’s partnerships with area high schools, more than 2,000 high school students take dual-credit courses, simultaneously earning both high school and college credits. Purdue University Fort Wayne is accredited by The Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. Learn more about us at www.PFW.edu.

The review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Please submit via email a letter of interest, clearly stating which position you are applying for, current vitae, a 1-2 page teaching philosophy statement, evidence of teaching effectiveness, unofficial transcripts, and the names, addresses (including emails), and telephone numbers of three references to Tamara Davich at davicht@pfw.edu. Should you have any questions, please contact the Search Committee Chair.

Koichiro Otani, Ph.D., Search Committee Chair
Health Services Administration Search Committee
Department of Public Policy
Purdue University Fort Wayne
2101 E. Coliseum Blvd., Fort Wayne IN 46805-1499
Telephone: 260-481-0492 Fax: 260-481-6346
Email: otanik@pfw.edu

Candidates who are interviewed should prepare a 45-60 minute instructional student presentation.

Purdue University Fort Wayne is an EEO/AA employer fully committed to achieving a diverse workforce. All individuals, including minorities, women, individuals with disabilities, and protected veterans are encouraged to apply.

Employment is contingent on a satisfactory background records check and available funding.