Date: April 3, 2017

Subject: 2017 College of ETCS Award Selections

The committee met on Monday, March 27, and Monday, April 3, 2017 to review the applications for the ETCS Excellence Awards. The work of the Committee is governed by Assembly Document 90-1, "College Awards for Excellence in Teaching, Service or Research," amended March 1, 2010.

The results of the meeting are as follows:

Excellent in Service Award: There were no applications.

Excellent in Research Award: There was only one application for excellence in research, and the committee elected not to make this award.

Excellent in Teaching Award (Kimberly O'Connor and Michelle Parker): There were four competitive applications for excellence in teaching. The committee selected two award winners based on many factors including the quality of teaching, breadth of courses taught, course and program development, student advising, and papers and presentations related to teaching.
