

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
PURDUE UNIVERSITY
AT FORT WAYNE

TO: The Senate

FROM: Marge Souers, Executive Associate Dean
School of Education

DATE: September 1, 1989

SUBJ: Amendments to SD 88-35 (Promotion and Tenure Document -
School of Education)

The following revisions were made to the promotion and tenure document for the School of Education:

A preamble will be inserted immediately after V. Faculty, F. Promotion and Tenure, to read:

The Indiana University School of Education has one dean, three executive associate deans, and eight campuses. The IPFW School of Education complies with regulations of both Indiana University and the local campus.

FWSD 88-13 (Amended 12/12/1988 and Amended and Approved 1/16-1/23/1989) charges each school/division faculty to (1) approve department/program promotion and tenure committee composition and functions (Section 1.1) and (2) establish, with approval by the Senate, school/division promotion and tenure committee composition and functions (Section 1.3). This document is submitted to the Senate pursuant to FWSD 88-13, its provisions are subordinate to it, and revisions to it require senate review.

Any revisions to this document must be approved by the faculty of the IPFW School of Education.

The word "tenure-track" will be inserted in V.F.1., making it read:

All full-time tenure-track faculty members have voting privileges on cases of promotion and tenure, including faculty members absent from the campus, regardless of the reason(s) for their absence.

The word "counseling" will be deleted in V.F.2.b.III.A.3, V.F.2.c.III.A.3, and V.F.2.d.III.A.3, making each subsection read:

Advising students.

V. FACULTY

F. Promotion and tenure

The Indiana University School of Education has one dean, three executive associate deans, and eight campuses. The IPFW School of Education complies with regulations of both Indiana University and the local campus.

FWSO 88-13 (Amended 12/12/1988 and Amended and Approved 1/16-1/23/1989) charges each school/division faculty to (1) approve department/program promotion and tenure committee composition and functions (Section 1.1) and (2) establish, with approval by the Senate, school/division promotion and tenure committee composition and functions (Section 1.3). This document is submitted to the Senate pursuant to FWSO 88-13, its provisions are subordinate to it, and revisions to it require senate review.

Any revisions to this document must be approved by the faculty of the IPFW School of Education.

1. Voting privileges

All full-time tenured and tenure-track faculty members have voting privileges on cases of promotion and tenure, including faculty members absent from the campus, regardless of the reason(s) for their absence.

2. The faculty sits as a committee of the whole, chaired by the senior professor of the school.
3. The senior professor reports the vote of the faculty to the executive associate dean, who then makes an independent judgment regarding the case.
4. Nomination and election of faculty representatives for the promotion and tenure panel follow the nomination and election procedures outlined in V.K.
