Sterling Scholarship Society:

Annual contributions of $300 or more with a three-year commitment.

To donate materials:

Musical instruments (winds, strings, percussion and pianos), CDs (classical, jazz, folk and rock), corporate equipment (new MAC or PC computers, servers, printers, scanners, fax machines), vintage clothing, furniture, and books are always welcome. Please call the College of Visual and Performing Arts at 260-481-6977 to schedule a review of your gift. Thank you!

Contributor tax benefits:

Indiana law allows a 50 percent income tax credit each year to persons making contributions to IPFW, up to $400 if filing jointly and $200 if filing individually. Thus, half of some gifts are returned to the donor through the tax credit.

Other benefits may be available, depending upon the size of your gift and your tax status. Dean, John O'Connell (260-481-6977) or Executive Director of Development Linda Ruffolo (260-481-6659) will be happy to assist you with any questions regarding tax benefits or any planned and estate giving.
