Managing & Grading Discussions

Overview

In the Discussions tool, you have multiple options on how discussion threads are displayed for you. This guide will cover the most common setting differences as well as a few different ways to assess student threads.

Objectives

By following the guide, you will be able to:

- Part 1: Locate the Discussion Settings
- Part 2: Familiarize Yourself with the Discussion Settings
- Part 3: Familiarize Yourself with Using Reading Pane View
- Part 4: Grade a Discussion Thread in Reading Pane View
- Part 5: Grade a Discussion Post for an Individual Student in Reading Pane View
- Part 6: Familiarize Yourself with Using Threaded Grid View
- Part 7: Grade a Discussion (Threaded or Unthreaded) in Grid View
- Part 8: Grade a Discussion Using the Grades Tool
- Part 9: View Discussion Threads from the Class Progress Tool

Part 1: Locate the Discussion Settings

1. Click Course Admin in the navigation bar.
2. Select Discussions.
3. Click the Settings link in the top-right corner of the page.

4. Adjust Discussion settings based on your preferences.
   Note: See Part 2 to familiarize yourself with the Discussion settings.

Threaded vs Unthreaded in Grid View Only

Overview: The Default Threading Style is only available in Grid View. In Grid View, you can change between Threaded and Unthreaded from Settings or by using the dropdown menu displayed in the upper-right of the grid. (See image below.) To change from Threaded to Unthreaded, select All Posts (or Unread Only or Flagged Only). Note: The actual heading of “Unthreaded” is not selectable.

Part 3: Familiarize Yourself with Using Reading Pane View

1. Click Course Admin in the navigation bar.
2. Select Discussions.
3. Click the link to the Discussion topic.
4. When in a Reading Pane View, you can see all of the posted threads by each of the students by scrolling the page.
5. Click 📂 more to expand the entire post.
6. Click the title link to a specific thread to see the complete discussion including any posted replies from other students.

!Virtual Classroom

- Briefly introduce the feature you recommend.
- The virtual classroom allows instructor to meet students synchronously.
- How do you plan to use the feature in your teaching?
- I would like to use it to provide feedback to the service-learning project to each individual group.

This is a great idea. I had not considered using Virtual Classroom for service-learning project. In my course, our service-learning project is done in small groups. I would like to consider using Virtual Classroom for my students to have individual project meetings. This will require extra planning and set up of the tool in advance.

The Virtual Classroom sounds like helpful tool for virtual office hours. I have found that not many students take advantage of coming to office during face-to-face office hours. I wonder whether it would make a difference to provide a virtual option?
Part 4: Grade a Discussion Thread in Reading Pane View

1. Click Course Admin in the navigation bar.
2. Select Discussions.
3. Click the link to the Discussion topic to grade.
4. Click the dropdown arrow next to the topic name.
5. In the dropdown menu, select Assess Topic.

6. Click the Assessments tab for an alternative view.

7. Note: From the ‘Assess Topic’ page, you will not be able to know whether each student has submitted a post or not. Under the Status column, all submissions and none-submissions will appear as Not yet evaluated. After you save a student’s evaluation, the status will appear as Draft or Published depending on how you saved it.
8. Click the student name link.
9. A new window will pop-up to assess the student:
   1. Topic Score box is at the top-right
   2. (Optional) If the topic is associated with a rubric, click each criterion to evaluate the student.
   3. Scroll down for any area to type General Feedback to the student.
   4. Scroll further to read the student’s post.
   5. Click the Publish button when finished or Save Draft to return later.
10. Repeat steps 8 & 9 to assess other students.

Part 5: Grade a Discussion Post for an Individual Student in Reading Pane View

1. Click Course Admin in the navigation bar.
2. Select Discussions.
3. Click the link to the Discussion topic to grade.
4. Click the dropdown arrow next to the topic name.
5. In the dropdown menu, select Assess Student.
6. A new window will pop-up to assess the student:
   1. Topic Score box is at the top-right
   2. (Optional) If the topic is associated with a rubric, click each criterion to evaluate the student.
   3. Scroll down for any area to type General Feedback to the student.
   4. Scroll further to read the student’s post.
   5. Click the Publish button when finished or Save Draft to return later.

7. Repeat steps 4 - 6 to assess other student threads.

Part 6: Familiarize Yourself with Using Threaded Grid View

1. Click Course Admin in the navigation bar.
2. Select Discussions.
3. Click the link to the Discussion topic.
4. When in a Threaded Grid View, you can easily see who has posted an original thread and what students have posted replies.

5. Under the ‘Subject’ column, click the link to the topic name.
6. The student’s post will display below the grid.

7. Click the Next link to advance to replies of original posts. (The Next link only appears when there is a threaded discussion. A threaded discussion consists of replies to an original post.)

8. Click the Previous link to return to the previous post. (The Previous link only appears when you are on a reply of an original post.)
9. When Assessing a student’s post, the pop-up window includes information on how many posts (includes replies) that the user has posted on this specific topic. (See Part 5 for steps on how to Assess in Grid View.)

Part 7: Grade a Discussion (Threaded or Unthreaded) in Grid View

1. Click the link to the Discussion topic to grade.
2. Under the ‘Subject’ column, click the first topic name link.
3. Below the grid, click the More Actions button.
4. In the dropdown menu, select Assess.
5. A new window will pop-up to assess the student:
   1. Note that the window includes information on how many posts (includes replies) that the user has posted on this specific topic.
   2. Enter a score in the Topic Score box.
   3. If you want to push the publish the grade to the gradebook, check the box next to Published.
   4. Use Feedback textbox to provide feedback to the student.
   5. (Optional) If the topic is associated with a rubric, click each criterion to evaluate the student.
   6. Click the Save button when finished.

6. Repeat steps 4 - 6 to assess other student threads.

Part 8: Grade a Discussion Topic Using the Grades Tool

1. Click Grades in the navigation bar.
2. Scroll and locate the grade item column associated with the Discussion to grade.
3. Click the dropdown arrow next to the Discussion topic.
4. Select Enter Grades.

5. Scroll down to see a list of your students.
6. To the right of the student’s name, you can do the following:
   1. Under the Grade column, scores display. You can enter or edit scores.
   2. Under the Feedback column, click the icon to enter feedback to the student.
   3. Under the Assessment column, click the icon to view & assess a student’s submissions for the corresponding topic.
      - If the student has not submitted a thread, the icon will display. Click to still view & assess the student.

Part 8: Grade Multiple Discussion Topics in a Category Using the Grades Tool

1. Click Grades in the navigation bar.
2. Scroll and locate the grade category associated with the multiple Discussions.
   Note: The grade category must be set up in advance under Manage Grades.
3. Click the dropdown arrow next to the Discussion category.
4. Select Enter Grades.
5. To the right of the student’s name, under each topic, you can do the following:
   1. Under the Submission column, click the 📖 icon to view & assess a student’s submissions for the corresponding topic. Scores saved here will populate to the Grade column.
   2. Under the Grade column, scores will display. You can enter or edit scores.
   3. Under the Action column, click the 🖊 icon to enter feedback to the student.

6. Click the Save and Close button when finished grading.

Part 9: View Discussion Threads from the Class Progress Tool

(One Time Only) Do this First:
1. Click Class Progress in the navigation bar.
2. Click the Settings link in the top-right corner of the page.
3. Identify one of the indicators to replace on the dashboard. (ex: Objectives Completion Summary)
4. Next to the indicator to replace, click the dropdown arrow.
5. Select Replace in the dropdown menu.
6. Scroll down and click on Discussions Participation Summary.
7. Click the Save and Close button.

Class Progress Dashboard:
1. On the Class Progress dashboard, notice the Discussions summary column. This view provides a high-level summary of each student’s level of involvement in all online Discussions.
2. The read, threads, & replies statistics for each student are clickable links if you are interested in diving deeper into that specific student’s Discussion data.

Viewing Discussions
1. On the Class Progress dashboard, click the first name in the list.
2. This will take you to the ‘Progress Summary’ of that student.
3. Click Discussions in the left margin.
