

2018-19 New Faculty Institute Agenda
Alumni Center
August 14, 2018
7:30 – 5:00

Welcome and Introductions

7:30 Breakfast is served!

7:45 – 8:00 Welcome from Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs Drummond

8:00 – 8:15 Chancellor Elsenbaumer

8:15 – 8:45 Breakfast with Chairs and Deans

8:45 – 9:00 Faculty Leadership

9:00 – 9:15 Get to know your colleagues and photos – Associate Dean Kim McDonald

9:15 – 9:45 Break with photos

Getting to know PFW

9:45 – 10:15 am What is PFW and IUFW? Origins, mission, metropolitan status
Associate Dean Bruce Kingsbury

10:15 – 11:30 pm Team scavenger hunt on campus

11:30 – 1:00 Faculty lunch reception at Alumni Plaza

Who are our students and how do we help them?

1:15 – 1:45 Who are our students and how do we deal with academic misconduct and grade appeals? Chief Student Affairs Office and Dean of Students Eric Norman

1:45 – 2:15 Processes and resources for students with disabilities Director of Services for Students with Disabilities Julie Schrader

How do you effectively teach PFW students?

2:15 – 3:00 pm Teaching philosophy – being authentic in the classroom and important things to know for your syllabus Associate Vice-Chancellor Marcia Dixon

3:00 Break

3:15 – 4:00 pm Assignments to assess learning and effective grading practices Associate Dean Terri Swim

4:00 – 4:30 Did you really get to know your colleagues ☺?? – Associate Dean Mary Cooper

4:30 – 4:35 Handout with homework for goal setting session on October 19th Beverly Redman, Chair Theatre

4:35 – 5:00 Questions?

The rest of the story . . .

(Your attendance at these events is expected unless you have class at this time or the topic does not apply to your position)

September 14 12:30 – 2:30 KT 117: Lunch and assessing your teaching success Facilitated by Center for Enhancement of Learning and Teaching

How are you doing? Using midterm evaluations/SGIDs/CATs to assess your teaching now. Preparing student evaluations to assess your teaching at the end of the semester.

October 19: 12:30 – 2:30 KT 117: Creating and Documenting your success Facilitated by Associate Dean Christopher Coleman and Associate Dean Bruce Kingsbury

Goal setting homework due!!!

- Governance Structure
 - Senate Documents
 - Your college documents
- Reappointment process
- P & T process and support resources

November 16 12:30 – 2:30 KT 117: Teaching students with high impact practices (HIP) Facilitated by Associate Deans Terri Swim and Kim McDonald

What are high impact practices? Why should we care? Which are useful for you? What resources do we have to help you develop/offer HIPs

January 18 12:30 – 3:30 TBD: Advising PFW students: What you need to know and do Facilitated by IPFW Advising Council

General Education, Baccalaureate framework, myBLUEprint, Banner
Do: Intrusive advising

February 8 12:30 – 2:30 TBD: Resources for research Facilitated by Helmke Librarian Sue Skekloff, Purdue Fort Wayne IRSC Co-Chairs Shannon Bischoff and Connie Kracher, and IRB Purdue Social Science Chair, Jeannie DiClimenti

Library resources for your research, IRSC Opportunities, IRB Responsibilities

March 22 12:30 – 2:30 TBD: How to get your research done Facilitated by Associate Dean Bruce Kingsbury

Resources to help you achieve from the PFW Writing Circle and current successful researchers

April 12 12:30 – 2:30 TBD: Lunch and discussion of how your first year went. What do you need next year? Facilitated by Department Chair Beverly Redman Open discussion