Fashion, Food, Club Sports, and More

Hey friends,

Just a quick note to share some exciting things with all of you and to thank everyone for just being all-around awesome students.

Special Under Armour Discounts: As a student on campus, you receive 25% off all Under Armour purchases via the UA website! To do so, create an MVP Athlete Pass, which enrolls you in the UA Rewards loyalty program. After that, you're all set.

- Want some sweet PFW-branded UA apparel? We've got some special, limited options on campus that you can order and pick-up within a matter of days. Click here to see the great choices.
- And did you know we also have a Mastodon Athletics store on Amazon with officially licensed apparel for men, women, and children? These are just two convenient ways to find the perfect item to rep your PFW teams and the greatest logo in all of NCAA Division I athletics.

New Ways to Feed the Herd: If you haven't already noticed, there are tasty, new dining options available for you—and a lot more to come!

- Now at Don's at Walb, there are build-your-own stations featuring Mexican and ramen food options—students' #1 request fulfilled—new smash burgers at The Grille, and a mac and cheese bar at Pizza and Pasta.
- And, for a sweet treat, Java Spot at Walb now offers hand-dipped ice cream, milkshakes, protein smoothies, and additional sweet treats from a local bakery.
- Also, shhhhh, don't tell too many people, but over the next couple of months you may begin to notice some construction in the clubhouse at Student Housing where something very yummy will be making its way to campus. This will be available to all students starting during the spring semester.

There's Still so Much to Do This Fall: From a Cedar Point trip a week from Saturday to craft nights, D-I athletics, and everything in between, it's all yours for being our students! Make sure to visit the university's Events Calendar frequently to keep up with what's going on.

- As you do, mark your own calendars for Nov. 4 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. for the Chancellor's Chili Fest, and Nov. 12 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. for ThanksStudentsGiving. When it starts to feel more like fall, is anything better than free chili and a free, traditional Thanksgiving meal?!

Ramping Up Club Sports: Finally, for those who want to Don (see what I did there?) PFW on your chest and compete in- and out-of-state against other universities, we are expanding our club sports offerings and want you to join the movement! Club sports are not D-I teams, but they compete against other schools, just like our varsity athletes. Interested? Let us know and we will be in touch. Complete this survey and/or contact me at VCSA@pfw.edu with questions.

This is an exciting time on campus as we grow to better serve and support you!
