

Dedicated People

Our campus community's growth and success is the result of faculty and staff who work tirelessly to help make the university such a special place to work, learn, and flourish. This series helps us recognize those who exemplify PFW's positive progress.

Giang Petroviak

This week's Dedicated People feature spotlights Giang Petroviak, executive director of student success initiatives. Passionate about helping students feel connected, supported, and empowered, Giang works closely with faculty, staff, and students to create programs and experiences that help students succeed from their first day on campus through graduation.

Originally from Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam, Giang shares how her own college experiences shaped her passion for student success, why she is proud to call Fort Wayne home, and what makes the Purdue Fort Wayne community so special. Read more about her dedication to students, campus traditions, and the lasting impact of connection and belonging.

Don't Miss the Summer Resource Fair Next Week

Celebrate your hard work this semester! The Campus Support Staff Advisory Committee is throwing a Summer Resource Fair on Wednesday, June 3, from 3 to 5 p.m. in the Classic Ballroom at Walb Student Union. Step away from your desk, connect with colleagues, and discover campus and community resources to help you thrive.

Visit the events calendar to add the fair directly to your calendar and browse the list of featured vendors and activities.

Inside PFW Shifts to Weekly Summer Schedule

During the summer months, Inside PFW will shift to a weekly publication schedule. You can expect an edition every Wednesday featuring key campus updates, operational announcements, and university news.

The newsletter will return to its normal biweekly schedule just in time to kick off the fall semester.

Good to Know

June Faculty and Staff Portrait Session

Faculty and staff who would like to have portraits taken may do so Tuesday from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The photographer will be set up on the north end of the skybridge connecting Helmke Library and Walb Student Union.
