3. Meetings of the Senate

I.A.3.1. Scheduling

I.A.3.1.1. Regular meetings of the Senate shall be held on the second Monday of each month, September through April, except that the date of a regular meeting may be moved by not more than one week in either direction by action of the Executive Committee announced at least one week in advance of the actual date of the meeting. The beginning and ending of Senate meetings shall conform to the pattern for the scheduling of classes. If the agenda for a regular meeting is not exhausted during this session, the meeting will continue for a second session, at the same time one class week thence. The Senate shall not schedule regular meetings for on average more than two such sessions per month.

I.A.3.1.2. Special meetings of the Senate shall be held upon petition by twenty percent of the Voting Faculty, by forty percent of the Senate, or by action of the Executive Committee. Meetings that are the result of petition shall be scheduled in a timely manner, but in no case shall they be scheduled for later than one week after receipt of the petition by the chairperson of the Executive Committee. Special meetings, whether the result of petition or decision of the Executive Committee, require written notice to the membership at least forty-eight hours in advance of the meeting, and only those resolutions circulated with the agenda distributed with the meeting notice may be considered.

I.A.3.2. Agendas and minutes. The Clerk shall distribute agendas of regular meetings and convocations one week in advance and post agendas and minutes of all Senate meetings, convocations, and assemblies on the Senate's webpage.

I.A.3.3. Attendance. Except as provided herein, meetings of the Senate will be open to all members of the PFW community, as observers, and to other persons invited to attend by the Executive Committee. Representatives of the press will normally be invited to be present. At any meeting, the Senate may, by a majority vote of the Senators present, exclude all observers. Once excluded, certain observers may be permitted to return, at the request of the Presiding Officer approved by a majority vote of the Senators present, or by a majority vote of the Senators present.

I.A.3.4. Quorum. A majority (i.e., more than half) of the Senate membership shall constitute a quorum.

I.A.3.5. Order of business. The order of business at each regular meeting of the Senate shall be as follows:

I.A.3.5.1. Call to order

I.A.3.5.2. Approval of the minutes of the previous meeting

I.A.3.5.3. Acceptance of the agenda

I.A.3.5.4. Reports of the Faculty Chairs. They shall report in order of their seniority in office.

I.A.3.5.5. Special business for the day. This includes memorial resolutions.

I.A.3.5.6. Unfinished business

I.A.3.5.7. Committee reports requiring action.

I.A.3.5.8. New business. No formal business may be conducted, nor action taken on any motion or resolution, after the close of new business.

I.A.3.5.9. Question time. At this time, the University administration will respond to written questions submitted in advance through the Executive Committee unless the administration gave a written response in advance of the meeting that was included as a Senate Reference to the agenda.

I.A.3.5.10. Committee reports “for information only.” Time permitting, a representative of the originating body of the report should give a brief summary and answer any questions from the floor.

I.A.3.5.11. The general good and welfare of the University

I.A.3.5.12. Adjournment

I.A.3.6. Speaking privileges

I.A.3.6.1. Members. Senators shall obtain the floor by raising a hand to seek recognition.

I.A.3.6.2. Nonmembers.

I.A.3.6.2.1. The PFW Representative in the Purdue University Senate shall have speaking privileges (see Section VI.B.1).

I.A.3.6.2.2. Upon request prior to a meeting, any nonmember, Faculty or member of the administration, may be invited by the Executive Committee to participate without vote in the meeting. On its own initiative, the Executive Committee may invite any nonmember to participate in the discussion of matters of particular interest to the observer.

I.A.3.6.2.3. Any such invitation shall be subject to the exercise by the Executive Committee of its responsibility for taking varied points of view into account, for acquiring the most information about issues before the Senate as reasonably practicable, and for the efficient management of the Senate’s time.

I.A.3.6.2.4. The Clerk shall ensure that all observers are seated apart from Senators.

I.A.3.6.3. Affiliates. Affiliates identified below are encouraged to participate, without vote, in Senate meetings.

I.A.3.6.3.1. The Faculty of Indiana University Fort Wayne shall be accorded one Senate affiliate.

I.A.3.8. Alternates and proxy voting. Neither alternates for members nor proxy voting shall be permitted. A member who will be absent from a meeting may present views in a letter to the Presiding Officer or request that the Executive Committee invite a person named by the member to speak on a particular issue.

I.A.3.9. Roll-call votes. Upon request of 20% of the Senators present and voting by a show of hands, a roll-call vote shall be taken on the pending motion, and the minutes shall record the names of those voting aye, no, and present.

I.A.3.10. The elected Representative of the Lecturers. The Representative of the Lecturers (see Subsection VI.A.1 below) shall be eligible to serve on all Senate committees and subcommittees, but may not vote on issues regarding promotion and/or tenure for tenured, tenure-track, or clinical faculty or professors of practice in the Senate or its committees. Solely for the purposes of determining the rights and duties of the elected Representative of the Lecturers (Section I.A.3.11) and satisfying the requirements of Section I.B.3.1.1. of these Bylaws, the elected Representative of the Lecturers shall be counted as a member of the Voting Faculty and as a Senator.

I.A.3.11. Rights and duties of a Senator

I.A.3.11.1. The privileges of a Senator shall include the right to:

I.A.3.11.1.1. receive meeting materials one week prior to regularly scheduled meetings;

I.A.3.11.1.2. be treated with respect and decorum by the Presiding Officer and fellow-Senators during Senate proceedings;

I.A.3.11.1.3. vote on all matters according to one's best judgment; and to

I.A.3.11.1.4. shape Senate proceedings by bringing motions to the floor, appealing rulings of the Presiding Officer, or interrupting proceedings by urgent, time-sensitive points of order.

I.A.3.11.2. The duties of a Senator shall include the obligation to:

I.A.3.11.2.1. attend meetings of the Senate prepared, ready to discuss and vote;

I.A.3.11.2.2. treat the Presiding Officer and fellow-Senators with respect and decorum during Senate proceedings;

I.A.3.11.2.3. serve as a two-way conduit of information between Senate and the unit they represent (i.e., informing the unit and soliciting its input to inform Senate discussions and voting decisions); and to

I.A.3.11.2.4. contribute to the work of the Senate by running for or serving on at least one Senate committee.

4. CONVOCATIONS

I.A.4.1. Quorum. At convocations of the Faculty, twenty percent of the Voting Faculty shall constitute a quorum.

B. GENERAL PROVISIONS REGARDING SENATE COMMITTEES AND SUBCOMMITTEES

1. Scope. In this section, unless stated otherwise, provisions stated for committees shall equally apply to subcommittees but not boards or councils.

2. Types of Committee. To aid in its functioning, the Senate may establish six types of committees and subcommittees:

I.B.2.1. service committees, which shall be standing committees charged with assisting in the routine operations of the Senate;

I.B.2.2. policy committees, which shall be standing committees charged with crafting policy and advising the Senate and the administration on substantive matters, and which may establish subcommittees to assist in their efforts;

I.B.2.3. advisory committees, which shall be standing committees charged with advising the Senate and the administration on substantive matters, and which may establish subcommittees to assist in their efforts;

I.B.2.4. ad-hoc committees, which shall be established by the Senate for special purposes;

I.B.2.5. councils, which are subcommittees populated not by vote but by members of its parent committee; and

I.B.2.6. boards, which, while being committees populated (mostly) by Faculty and subject to review by the Senate, operate outside the usual reporting structure of the Senate.

I.B.2.7. standing committees. Only service, policy, and advisory committees are considered standing committees.

3. Composition, Elections, and Appointments

I.B.3.1. Composition. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws,

I.B.3.1.1. Committees and subcommittees shall be composed of Teaching Faculty, with Voting Faculty comprising at least two-thirds (2/3) of its voting membership and at least one of them being a Senator. Should a committee fall out of compliance with this provision, that committee is authorized to, and must take, whatever legislative action is necessary to bring itself back into compliance with this provision immediately.

I.B.3.1.2. Committee members designated as “ex-officio” may send designees, who have the same voting rights as the ex-officio members, when unable to attend the meeting of a committee they are on.

I.B.3.2. Elections. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws,

I.B.3.2.1. Voting Faculty shall appoint or elect committee members, and elect representatives, in April, using the preferential voting system and with terms to commence one week before the beginning of regular fall classes following election.

I.B.3.2.2. Committees shall have the power to fill vacancies for the remainder of an academic year, subject to Senate approval at its next regular meeting and to the guidelines established in this document (see subsections 3.1.1 and 4.1). Individuals who are chosen to fill vacancies begin their terms immediately upon Senate ratification.

I.B.3.2.3. Any committee position that has been vacant for at least one month when regularly scheduled committee elections occur shall be declared as permanently vacated so that Nominations and Elections can conduct elections to fill those positions for full three-year terms. In the event that this action would eliminate the staggered nature of the positions on that committee, one of the individuals chosen in these elections would only serve a one-year term.

I.B.3.3. Appointments and nominations. Affiliate members of the Senate, representatives on and nominations for Senate committees from the All Professional Staff Advisory Committee (APSAC), the Clerical and Service Staff Advisory Committee (CSSAC), and the Student Government Association (SGA) shall be appointed or nominated, and their names communicated to the Clerk, each April, with terms to commence one week before the beginning of regular fall classes that same year.

4. Membership, Terms, Voting, and Schedule

I.B.4.1. Membership. No member of the Teaching Faculty may serve on more than three standing committees in a given academic year. This provision does not count service on ad-hoc committees, boards, or councils against the maximum number of committees on which a member of the Teaching Faculty may serve since these entities are not considered to be standing committees (see Section 2.7).

I.B.4.2. Terms.

I.B.4.2.1. Senators and Teaching Faculty. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws,

I.B.4.2.1.1. all committee terms shall be staggered and renewable;

I.B.4.2.1.2. the terms of Teaching Faculty who are not Senators shall be for three years;

I.B.4.2.1.3. the terms of Senators shall continue for the remainder of the Senator's elected term; and

I.B.4.2.1.4. becoming a Senator during one's term on a committee shall not affect one's membership in that committee.

I.B.4.2.2. Sabbatical Replacement. A member of the Faculty who goes on a sabbatical leave shall resign at the end of the semester before their sabbatical leave begins but give advance notice of their plans so that the committee can fill the vacancy in due time; or, if they serve on the Faculty Affairs Committee, they shall resign at the end of the semester that precedes the review of their sabbatical application.

I.B.4.2.3. Representatives. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, administrative/professional staff representatives (APSAC), clerical/service staff representatives (CSSAC), and student representatives (SGA) shall serve for one year.

I.B.4.3. Voting Rights. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, all members of a committee, except for student representatives and members who are not employees of the university, shall have voting rights on that committee.

I.B.4.4. Majority. When voting in a committee, it is considered a majority, or a majority decision, if it includes more than half of all votes cast, but also includes more than half of all votes from Teaching Faculty.

I.B.4.5. Schedule. Unless extraordinary circumstances dictate, the work of standing committees should be confined to the period between the Monday before the first week of fall classes and spring commencement; committee meetings should not take place during university breaks. This provision shall not be interpreted to constrain the activities of boards whose scheduling and deadline requirements are dictated by other university or system documents.

5. General Responsibilities of Senate Committees

I.B.5.1. First Meeting of a committee

I.B.5.1.1. At the beginning of each academic year, preferably during the week before the beginning of regular fall classes (also known as “on-duty week”), committees shall be convened for a first time by the senior committee member designated by the Presiding Officer, with assistance from the Clerk, to do so. The Clerk shall send out this information after the elections have come to a close in April.

I.B.5.1.2. At this meeting, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws or the Constitution; committees shall select their own chairs for that academic year from the ranks of Teaching Faculty, preferably someone who is past their first promotion. If no one volunteers at this meeting, the most senior faculty member shall serve as acting chair until a chair has been elected.

I.B.5.1.3. At this meeting, committees shall collectively review their charges and set a preliminary agenda for the academic year.

I.B.5.2. Committee chairs. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws or the Constitution,

I.B.5.2.1. The committee chair’s main responsibility shall be to thoroughly prepare, facilitate, and preside over regular meetings of the committee and to coordinate the work done both within the committee as well as its subcommittees or its parent committee, respectively.

I.B.5.2.2. The committee chair must not do the majority of the committee work but rather ensure that the work is distributed and carried out as equitably as possible among all committee members.

I.B.5.2.3. The committee chair shall report out of the committee and communicate, unless delegated, with people or units outside the committee on its behalf.

I.B.5.2.4. The committee chair, assisted by the Clerk of the Senate, shall keep timely minutes and maintain the committee’s activity log on the Senate webpage, available to all members of the Faculty. Standing committee chairs shall submit, in time for distribution as a Senate reference at the December and April meeting each academic year, a bulleted list summarizing past and ongoing committee work.

I.B.5.2.5. The committee chair may, with the approval of the committee and assent of the committee member so designated, assign their chair duties to a committee member during the summer months should the chair’s professional obligations require. If a “summer chair” is so designated, the Clerk of the Senate shall be informed of this appointment in a timely fashion.

I.B.5.3. Committee members

I.B.5.3.1. Committee members shall assume an active role in the work of the committee, bring issues to the attention of their committee chair in a timely manner, and be willing to accept an equitable share of the workload on their committee.

I.B.5.3.2. Committees, by a two-thirds vote of their members, shall have the power to remove members who fail to attend unexcused two consecutive meetings and/or fail to contribute to the work of the committee; this includes chairs who fail to do their duties. In case a committee member gets removed, the vacancy shall be filled as soon as possible (as per Subsection 3.2.2 above).

I.B.5.4. Report and review. Committees shall report to and be subject to review by the Senate.

I.B.5.4.1. Committees shall report to the Senate at the Senate's request, as requested by the Executive Committee, or on their own initiative.

I.B.5.4.2. Committees may give information concerning their activities to the campus administration, to any academic unit, or to any PFW committee, subcommittee, or council (but see Subsection 5.2.4 above).

I.B.5.4.3. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws (see, for example, Subsection 3.2.2 above), subcommittees and councils shall report to the Faculty and submit any documents through their respective parent committee.

I.B.5.5. Shared Governance. Committees shall conduct their work in the spirit of shared governance as outlined in the Constitution, Section VI.A.

The Executive Committee shall either place any such proposal on the agenda for the next Senate meeting, or, if that agenda is full, on the agenda for the following Senate meeting; or may send or return the proposal to a Senate committee or subcommittee.
